

COAL OPERATORS DENY THAT THEY AGREED TO SETTLEMENT TERMS

Executive Body of Bituminous Coal Operators' Association Issues Statement Denying That They Had Ever Been Consulted Regarding Coal Strike Agreement

DENIAL AIMED AT PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT TO COMMISSIONERS

TEXT OF OPERATORS' STATEMENT.

"The operators have not agreed to any memorandum such as that mentioned in the president's letter to Messrs. Robinson, White and Peale, involving a basis of adjournment of the coal strike.

"The operators were not consulted as to the agreement entered into between the government and the miners."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Consideration of proposals expected to bring to focus early next month trend of Senate opinion toward settlement.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The peace treaty controversy was vigorously revived today, just before the senate recessed for Christmas.

Two moves for the formal establishment of peace, one by ratification of the treaty and the other without, re-opened the fight among the divergent elements of senate membership. Neither proposal got anywhere, but it was conceded that the day's work would help bring to a focus early in January the trend of senate opinion toward settlement.

The greatest stir was caused late in the day by Senator Underwood, Democrat, Alabama, who proposed a resolution for appointment of a committee of ten senators to work out a compromise ratification of the treaty. Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, Republican leader, forced the resolution over until after the holidays.

The other move came from Senator Knox, of Pennsylvania, who secured approval of the foreign relations committee for a resolution to repeal the declaration of war and to declare of Germany, on pain of an economic boycott, all the material "benefits provided for under the unratified treaty. The mild reservation group of Republicans served notice they would not support such a measure, however, and the Democrats predicted it never would be adopted.

Privately the mild group made plans to go ahead determinedly with their efforts for a bi-partisan agreement on reservations. They indicated that they would have supported the Underwood proposal if Senator Lodge had not blocked a vote on it.

Senator Underwood, in presenting his resolution asked for active work toward a compromise during the recess declaring the country demanded peace. He suggested that the vice-president in naming the ten conferees should take the advice of Senator Lodge and Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, the acting Democratic leader. Many senators among the Democrats and mild reservationists Republicans declared the Underwood proposal in line with their views and ought to be adopted. Unanimous consent will not be required when the next attempt is made to get consideration.

In approving the Knox resolution, the Foreign Relations Committee divided seven to three along strict party lines, Senator McCumber, Republican, North Dakota being absent. Before taking final action the Republican majority substituted the Knox proposal which would require passage by both senate and house and signature by the president for one by Senator Lodge which was designed to secure action by congress only.

The move was taken to mean abandonment of any effort to declare a state of peace without the concurrence of President Wilson.

Senator Knox declared the purpose of his resolution was to break the treaty deadlock and return the nation to a peace time basis. Adoption of the resolution he said would not interfere with future ratification of the peace treaty. Senator Hitchcock said the resolution was preposterous and designed to defeat the league of nations.

Speaking for the mild reservationists, Republican Senator Kellogg of Minnesota, said that group had not been consulted about the resolution and would not support it until it was demonstrated that ratification with reservations was impossible.

Also an earnest supporter of the ratification without reservations.

NEW TREATY FIGHT

Two Moves for Establishment of Peace Started

REDS TO SAIL FROM NEW YORK FOR RUSSIA TODAY

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Sailing under sealed orders, the army transport Buford, which will carry back to soviet Russia, Emma Goldman, Alexander Berkman and more than 200 other radicals, will leave here early tomorrow. A thick veil of official secrecy was thrown about the preparations for departure.

The Buford has been stocked with provisions sufficient to last 500 persons sixty days. The destination of the ship it not known even to the captain. His sailing orders will be opened 24 hours away from port.

Preparations have been taken to prevent any possible trouble during the voyage.

The Buford is a slow ship and the time it will take her to reach a port where her passengers can be disembarked is problematical. Nearly 250 Reds were at Ellis Island and tonight awaiting deportation. The number had been increased during the day by the arrival of handcuffed and well-guarded delegations totalling about 150 from Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, the Cleveland district and Hartford, Conn.

Three women were among them—Miss Goldman, Dora Lipkin, and Ethel Bernstein. The last two are in their early twenties. Harry Weinberger, attorney for Miss Bernstein today asked Attorney General Palmer that her fiancée, Samuel Lipman, who is about to begin a prison sentence of 20 years for violating the espionage law, be permitted to accompany her to Russia.

Friends of Miss Goldman and her companion for 30 years, Berkman, kissed them goodbye today. Today's arrivals assumed a jovial demeanor when they left the trains. Many of them sang the "Internationale." All were well provided with American money and clothing to withstand a rigorous winter in Russia. The cash resources of the party from Pittsburgh alone were estimated at $100,000. Many of them had acted like real capitalists in saving high wages in steel mills and mines.

Since countrywide raids in November the soviet at the island has been steadily growing.

Inauguration of an investigation at the island by the house committee on immigration into delays in deportations of anarchists was followed by rapid increases in the Red colony.

SEND OUT TRACERS FOR NAVAL PLANE

Trans-Atlantic Seaplane NC-4 Overdue on Non-Stop Flight From Galveston to Mobile.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 20.—The naval station here reported tonight having heard from the NC-4 by radio at 11:35 a. m., today, the message stating that the seaplane was due in Mobile late today and asking directions and wind reports. The ship's position at the time was not given.

Mobile, Ala., Dec. 20.—Naval officials today sent out tracers for the NC-4, the trans-Atlantic seaplane, which is several hours overdue on the non-stop flight from Galveston to Mobile. The plane left Galveston at 9:35 o'clock this morning and was due to arrive here at 1:30 this afternoon.

Lieutenant Commander A. C. Read, the NC-4's trans-Atlantic commander was abroad the plane when it left Galveston.

Mrs. Read who is awaiting her husband here stated that she was not worried as the huge plane was frequently delayed in such weather.

Coincident with the anxiety for the NC-4, the officials at the Atlantic Naval Station stated they had been advised that the plane H-38 due to arrive at Pensacola, Fla., from Galveston at 3 p. m., had not been heard from at 5:30 o'clock.

Conversed With Read.

Houston Texas, Dec. 20.—C. W. Vicks, a local wireless operator with whom Commander Read of the NC-4 conversed all the way from New Orleans to Galveston Wednesday, maintained communication today for an hour and forty minutes and then lost the airplane. Vicks quoted Read as saying that he expected weather conditions today to interfere with wireless work.

No Reports Received.

Galveston, Texas, Dec. 20.—No reports have been received from Seaplane NC-4 by the local naval radio station since 10:30 o'clock this morning. At that time the NC-4 did not give her position and mentioned nothing of trouble. She departed from Galveston for Mobile shortly after 9 o'clock. At 10:45 o'clock this morning the radio station at Burwood, La., told the station at Port Arthur that the NC-4 had a rush message from the Port Arthur station. Five minutes later the New Orleans station called the N C-4 but got no reply, the local radio operator said.

RANKS NEXT TO SERGEANT YORK

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Former Sergeant Willie Sandlin, of Hyden, Ky., today was appointed special escort for the return of soldier dead from overseas by Secretary Baker on recommendation of Major General Rogers. Sergeant Sandlin was selected for the post because of his unusual record in the world war. Unofficially he ranks next to Sergeant York in his exploits against the enemy, being credited with killing 24 Germans and wounding and capturing many more.

KILLED BY THUGS AS HE AWAIT'S BOAT

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 20.—Lieut. John Campbell Cleave, 28 years old, of this city, prominent socially, has been killed in Brest, France, by a band of thugs. He had survived a wound and severe gassing at the battle front and was waiting for a boat to bring him home for Christmas.

Lieut. Charles W. Nevin, also of Philadelphia, was shot in the leg in the same attack.

WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED

New York, Dec. 20.—Christmas and New Year's messages of greeting will not be accepted for transmission over the wires of six leading European systems, according to a message received today from the International Telegraph Bureau at Berne, Switzerland. The companies announce that owing to the present holiday season commercial messages will not be accepted.

INSPECTION TRIP

General Pershing Visits Chicago Saturday

ADDRESSES LEGION

Speaks to 3,000 American Legion Members—Shakes Hands With Wounded From Fort Sheridan Urges Universal Training

CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—In two addresses tonight General John J. Pershing, commander of the American Expeditionary Forces in France, strongly urged immediate universal military training.

"I would be in favor of universal military training whether we ever have war again," said General Pershing.

Referring to the disposition of the present military camps of the country, General Pershing said they would be sold or turned back to their former owners unless universal military training was adopted immediately. This, he said, was strictly a problem for the American people.

Major General Leonard Wood, preceding General Pershing said alien element and the industrial workers of the world were in the same category and should be severely dealt with no matter what it costs in men and money.

General Pershing will visit Camp Grant, Rockford, Illinois, January 5th.

Likes "Buddy" the Best

The commander in chief of the A. E. F., here on an inspection trip, told 3,000 American Legion members that of all the titles he has held from captain in general he liked the "Buddy" best.

General Pershing arrived this morning for a two day visit, which will include inspection of Fort Sheridan. He will not visit Camp Grant until Jan. 5. He was met at the station by Major General Leonard Wood, and his staff.

The commander was given a rousing welcome by the former overseas fighters, members of Chicago's American Legion posts.

"There is unrest thruout the country as is always the case after a war," General Pershing said in a short address. "It is time for us as a democracy to realize that we are guardians of our future. The American Legion will stand up against these revolutionary ideas being preached now. You not only will oppose them morally but physically too, if that is necessary."

He advised the former soldiers to keep the organization free from politics.

Grooms Wounded Men.

As the general left the hall he passed down a lane of wounded men from Fort Sheridan hospital. Many were on crutches. The general stopped, shook hands with every man and questioned them closely regarding their service, wounds, and their progress toward recovery.

Sergeant Walter Dukes, partially paralyzed and carried to the meeting in the arms of a husky comrade, attracted the general's attention when a friend shouted the information that Dukes, seated in a wheel chair, was to be married tonight.

"Where is your wound chevron?" Pershing asked, catching sight of the sergeant's undecorated arm. "If I had a wound chevron," he continued, "I would walk around carrying my arm out at right angles for everybody to see."

Asked by photographers to pose for a picture, the general placed his arm around Dukes and supported him while they posed together.

Another wounded veteran volunteered the information that he had served in the tank corps. Pershing grasped again the hand he had just dropped, shook it warmly, and said:

"I can't tell you how much I appreciate the bravery and gallantry of you brave fellows who served in the tank corps. Your work was wonderful."

Thousands Greet Him.

Thousands of persons greeted General Pershing upon his arrival for his first visit to Chicago since he went overseas. Other cheering thousands thronged the line of march to a down town hotel where the general's first ceremonial act was to bestow on two old star mothers the Distinguished Service Crosses their sons died in gaining in France.

At the American Legion hall where he addressed members, he received an enthusiastic greeting. The legion meeting was open only to men wearing the uniform of legion button. Col. Milton J. Foreman, commander of the Illinois branch introduced General Pershing amidst the roars of the former soldiers.

Chicago's tribute to the American commander in chief was reserved until this afternoon, when General Pershing rode at the head of a parade of 10,000 persons thru the gayly decorated downtown district. The terminus of the parade was fixed at the Art Institute, where an informal reception was held.

CLOSE SUGAR PLANT

Mason City, Ia., Dec. 20.—The plant of the Northern Sugar Co. closed here last night in the completion of converting the 1919 crop of beets into sugar. Company officials say that 12,000,000 pounds of sugar were made this year as compared to 18,000,000 in 1918.

OREGON SQUAD ARRIVES

Pasadena, Cal., Dec. 20.—The University of Oregon football squad of 25 players arrived here today to prepare for its game with Harvard New Year's Day. Coach Huntington said his men generally were in fine shape.

CONGRESS CLOSING FOR CHRISTMAS VACATION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The Christmas recess of congress began at 11:12 p. m., tonight when the senate adjourned to meet again January 5. The house adjourned four minutes earlier and no business was transacted in either house during the night.

Under the holiday rule more business was transacted today than often goes thru in a month. Left for action, however, were many important measures, including the German peace treaty.

Trains leaving Washington tonight were crowded with members and their families and nearly all business is to be suspended until reconvening January 5 when congress is prepared to undertake work expected to hold it in session until the presidential election campaign next fall.

A score of bills and resolutions mostly of minor character were passed today. Legal requirements for transmission to the president tonight of measures completed today delayed adjournment until a late hour. While enrolling clerks worked at top speed to complete bills for signature of the vice president and speaker the senate and house recessed for dinner and aity a handful of members returned for the formal adjournment.

WILL INVESTIGATE

Activities of Russian Propagandists in This Country

ADOPT RESOLUTION

Senate Authorizes Investigation by Adopting Resolution by Senator Kenyon Providing For Such an Inquiry

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Investigation by the foreign relations committee into the activities of Russian propagandists in this country was ordered late today by the senate which adopted a resolution by Senator Kenyon, Republican of Iowa, providing for such an inquiry.

As originally drawn and reported favorably to the senate the resolution limited the investigation to the activities of Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, self-styled ambassador to America from the Russian soviet government. The senate however, by a vote of 32 to 22, adopted an amendment by Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, extending the resolution to include "all facts relative to the activity of others relating to Russian propaganda in this country."

Senator King, Democrat of Utah, denounced Martens and attacked the labor department for failure to deal with him. He said it seemed as tho some persons in the labor department were more inclined to protect Martens, than to enforce the law.

The Utah senator with Senators Williams, of Mississippi and Thomas of Colorado, opposed the Borah amendment on the ground that it granted too much latitude, contending that the investigation should be limited to Martens.

Senator Borah replied that he was satisfied that others beside Martens were carrying on a propaganda "quite as vicious and quite as pernicious."

"I know," he continued, "that millions of dollars are being expended if I am informed correctly that ought not to be expended in this country without it being known for what purpose it is being expended."

He added that he was not trying to restrict the investigation but to enlarge it.

Senator King charged that Martens had acted as representative of a revolutionist movement. He said his objection was not to Martens and his assistants collecting funds, but "that he is trying to overthrow our government and stir up sedition in this country."

Under the resolution the committee was directed to investigate as speedily as possible Martens' status. His hearing will probably begin early in January.

DISPUTES SHOW SLIGHT INCREASE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Industrial disputes thruout the country show only a slight increase according to the weekly report of the department of labor.

During the week ending Dec. 20, there were eight new cases brought to the attention of the department compared with seven with each of the two other previous weeks. There are now 21 strikes and 76 controversies before the department for settlement.

Adjustment of eleven labor disputes, affecting about 5,000 workers were made during the week.

AGREES TO ACCEPT TRIAL BY ALLIES

Geneva, Dec. 20.—A despatch from Basle states the former German emperor has agreed to accept trial by the allies, but adds that he wants to choose the place and time of the trial and desires to be defended by German experts and lawyers. The Basle despatch says the former crown prince declared he will never appear if he is called before a court of justice.

PAVES WAY FOR THE RETURN OF ROADS TO PRIVATE OWNERSHIP

Cummins' Bill Passes Senate By a Vote of 46 to 30

WOULD REQUIRE RETURN JAN. 31

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The Cummins' bill paving the way for the return of the railroads to private operation passed the senate late today by a vote of 46 to 30. It went thru without change in the anti-strike and other important provisions around which the senate measure was drawn and was sent to conference for adjustment during the recess. Final enactment of permanent railroad re-organization legislation is hoped for next month.

The ultimate disposition of the problem however, still is in doubt as the senate and house bills will be in conference and congress in recess on January 1, the date previously set by President Wilson or the return of the lines to their owners.

Unless vetoed by the president the pending legislation would require return of the roads by January 31. The railroad administration however, has plans for their return January 1 under presidential proclamation.

Preceding the final vote the senate rejected 65 to 11, a substitute bill offered by Senator LaFollette, Republican, Wisconsin, proposing retention of the roads another two years.

How Measure Was Supported

The Cummins bill was supported by 23 Republicans and 13 Democrats and opposed by 8 Republicans and 22 Democrats.

When the house was informed that the senate had passed the Cummins' bill, Representative Schuch, chairman of the interstate commerce committee, who will lead the house conferees said that the labor sections of the two bills were so "radically different that it seemed absolutely certain that the conferees would have to alter each the house for instructions."

Both senate and house bills propose private ownership and operation of the railroads under strict government supervision, but differ radically in other respects than their labor provisions. The senate bill would transfer the roads at midnight of the last day of the month in which the legislation is enacted. The house bill would return them similarly if enactment's should come before the fifteenth of the month, otherwise at the end of thirty days.

Conference's Tomorrow

Conferences to harmonize the two bills will begin next Monday. The senate vote today culminated from debate begun December 2. Senator LaFollette wound up the debate in a four hour address in behalf of his substitute.

Attack on the Cummins' bill in the senate centered largely on the anti-strike clause, penalizing scabbers or strikes of employees.

Both bills permit consolidations of competing systems, upon approval by federal authority. They also prescribe exclusive federal regulation of intra-state rates affecting interstate commerce.

Among major difficulties are the creation of a transportation board and a new statutory rule of rate making to guarantee fixed dividends, both proposed in the senate plan.

The transportation board under the senate bill would determine the country's transportation needs with the interstate commerce commission being direct to grant rates sufficient to meet these demands. The house bill would greatly extend the commission's authority, and not make it subject (Continued on Page 4.)

LET'S WAIT AND SEE

Attorney General Palmer says that the recent settlement of the coal strike was a victory for the government. The public is inclined to wait and see just what happens in the matter of prices. There is every indication that eventually the public will pay in higher prices the increase in mining expenses. Not until the proposed commission has acted and there is definite knowledge on this price question will Mr. Palmer's statement of the government "winning" stand public scrutiny.

SOME STRANGE PEOPLE IN WISCONSIN

The re-election of Victor Berger from Milwaukee to congress emphasizes the fact that the people cannot always be trusted. Mr. Berger, who had been denied a seat in congress because of un-Americanism and charges of disloyalty, has seemingly defeated the fusion candidate by something more than 2,000 majority. There must be something the matter with the Americanism of that district. The governor of Wisconsin has declared that if congress now declines to seat Mr. Berger that he will not call another special election but will permit the seat in congress to go vacant until the next regular election.

REPUBLICANS AIDING WOMEN

That women are to get aid from the Republican party organization in securing ratification of the suffrage amendment is indicated by the action of a number of states where special sessions of the legislature have been called for that very purpose.

In each instance a Republican governor has issued the call. Twenty-two states have already ratified, similar action is expected from five more in the early months of 1920, and at legislative sessions already scheduled in a number of eastern and western states practically enough support is assured to pass the amendment.

HELPING A GOOD CAUSE

The sale of Red Cross Christmas seals yesterday was gratifying to the Anti-Tuberculosis association directors. There were sales agencies in a number of stores and in still other establishments the proprietors used stamps on all bundles. Then there were solicitors on the streets and altogether the big crowd of Christmas shoppers was quite generous in the purchase of seals. However, the directors are still quite far from their goal in stamp sales if a sufficient fund is realized to provide the food for the open air school children during the remainder of this school year. It is a good and worthy cause.

If you have not already purchased Red Cross Christmas seals do so at the first opportunity.

THE JOY OF LOWER TAXES

People of Illinois will hear with unmingled joy the state tax rate this year, as it is 40c on the $100 valuation. Announcement of this fact was made by the state tax commission, including Gov. Lowden, State Auditor Andrew Russell and State Treasurer Sterling. This means a saving of several million of dollars to the people of the state by comparison with the taxes of recent years. In this statement due allowance is taken of the fact that the law has been so changed that assessment is now made upon one-half instead of one-third of the valuation.

The rate announced upon one-half valuation is equal to 60 percent on a third valuation and even considered in that way the saving is very large. It is quite natural, therefore, that men identified with the present state administration are giving Gov. Lowden's efficiency administration credit for this possible reduction.

IT'S TIME TO END DISCUSSION

Those men at Washington who urge that the league of nations question and the covenant be submitted to the people, have the facts against them. Important as the proposed action is, there is not one citizen in a thousand who has any real conception of its meaning or who has the disposition to spend the long time in study that will be necessary in order to gain that accurate information. But many of those willing to admit that they have only the most cursory knowledge of the league purposes and possible defects, do have the opinion that it is time for some compromise in Washington among the groups with differing views.

Some few senators are opposed to ratification at all, others want drastic reservations, still others are mild reservationists and then come those who demand ratification without change or reservation.

The president himself has not set a good example by announcement that he will not compromise. For the business of the country, if for nothing else, the senate should act in some way and bring the discussion to a close.

ALTON VS. JACKSONVILLE

The editor of the Alton Telegraph, who recently visited Jacksonville as one of the witnesses in the Reddish trial, was evidently not pleased with his visit here. Perhaps his estimate of Jacksonville is based on his disappointment that Dr. Reddish was cleared on the first ballot that the jury took. The editor referred to was counted as one of the star witnesses for the prosecution. But no matter what the reason, the Telegraph has a long editorial to the effect that Jacksonville has a much smaller population than census figures indicate; that the court house, hotels and business establishments generally are old, dirty and run down. The picture shows were not satisfactory to this visitor and he boasts that the Alton newspapers publish far more local news than the Jacksonville papers. He concludes with the statement that there are more people moving on the down town streets of Alton in an hour than appear on the streets of Jacksonville in twenty four.

It is a fine bit of self-complacency and really the self-complacency are to be envied. Their self-sufficiency protects them from many of the griefs that come to those more sensitive by nature.

The real trouble with the Alton man is that he does not understand Jacksonville, and he has been too long in the atmosphere of Alton to know just what Jacksonville stands for, with its educational institutions and the solidarity of citizenship that prevails here. He knows nothing about the strength of the community surrounding Jacksonville. He doesn't realize the difference between a city with a large foreign population and a city without a foreign element problem. He doesn't sense that while Jacksonville doesn't share to a large extent in industrial prosperity, that there is compensation in the fact that the times of serious depression that prevail in cities where industry is the chief support never come here. Nor does he understand that on a population basis Jacksonville has fewer dependents poor than other cities.

A list of undesirables here would be insignificant by comparison with other cities of the same size. Summed up, the Alton citizen makes the mistake of judging without any real knowledge of what he is talking about and with a narrow view of things that really counts. He does not appreciate the difference between prosperity of the war time type and that of the substantial, solid, year after year kind that belongs to Jacksonville.

Alton may be a beautiful, clean, progressive, busy, prosperous city but one doesn't get that idea as he passes thru on a Chicago & Alton train. Nevertheless the editor in question is entitled to credit for loyalty to his home city, and loyalty is always to be commended, even if of the self-centered kind and the result of a wrong perspective.

Rippling Rhymes

Anti-Red.

The banks are full of savings, the people's hard earned dust; and so we hear the ravings of Reds with doleful disgust. No program anarchistic can get a foothold here, no wild eyed Russian mystic can throw things out of gear. In vain the red flag wavings, the threats by tongue or pen, the banks are full of savings, put there by working men. When all of us are stony, dead broke and on the bum, perhaps Red speeches phoney with greater force will come; perhaps they will convert us, we'll join the unwashed dubs, until the peelers hurt us with lignum vitae clubs. But while we have our savings in yonder moral bank, you'll note that our belongings won't be so wash and rank. With vines and figtrees growing beside our cottage doors, we do not need the blowing of freaks from other shores. With happy children playing about our modest homes, we do not heed the braying that comes from batty domes. In vain the elocution frayed, imported seer, no priest or revolution can get a foothold here.

JURY IN O'CONNELL

CASE DID NOT AGREE

Discharged After Forty-eight Hours Deliberation—Report Says Men Stood Seven to Five For Conviction—Case Goes Over to May Term—Defendant and Attorneys to Return Home Today.

After deliberations running thru 48 hours, the jury which heard the evidence in the trial of Timothy O'Connell was discharged late Saturday afternoon by Judge Smith. The jurors were given instructions and retired to their room Thursday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock.

When the jurors were brought into the court room yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Andrews and took their seats in the box, Judge Smith asked them if they thought there was any possibility of their reaching an agreement. By common consent the jurors stated that they did not think this possible. The Court then asked State's Attorney Vandeventer of the prosecution and Mr. Cavanaugh of the defense if they had anything to suggest in the matter, and then the jurors were dismissed.

The docket entry was made indicating that the jury was unable to reach an agreement. Mr. Vandeventer asked to what term the case would go over and Judge Smith said there were no jury cases at the February term except by special arrangement, and that the case would naturally go to the May term. According to the present calendar, Judge Burton will be presiding in the circuit court at that time.

It was understood after the jury had been dismissed that they stood seven for conviction and five for acquittal, and that during the discussion of the case that no man changed his original opinion. Mr. Vandeventer will return to Mt. Sterling today and Mr. Cavanaugh to Carthage. The defendant, Timothy O'Connell, was in the court room at the time the docket entry was made. He will also return to his Brown county home today.

Docket Entries.

In the suit of the Powers-Begg Co. vs. Walker D. Hines and the C. B. & Q. Railroad, appeal was taken to the appellate court and bond fixed in the sum of $600.

In the bill filed by the Trustees of Illinois College vs. Clara Calvert, et al., the report of the trustees was filed and approved.

In the bill of Emma G. Smith vs. Laura E. Smith, et al., the master's report was filed.

CATTLE FEEDING THEME OF FARMERS

W. H. Smith of Animal Husbandry Department of State College Made Address Here.

W. H. Smith, assistant professor of animal husbandry of the state college of agriculture, was a visitor in Jacksonville yesterday. Mr. Smith's coming was arranged for by County Agent G. B. Kendall and the visitor made an address in the county court room on "Beef Cattle Production." The group of cattle feeders present found particular interest in the report made by Mr. Smith of a series of experiments at the state university in feeding cattle silage from which the corn had been previously snapped. It was found that cattle could be maintained all the year thru in dry lots by the use of this "stover" silage with the addition of some oil meal or soy bean meal. Mr. Smith said that the various experiments of this kind were worth while because one-third of the value of the corn crop is in the stalks.

The speaker presented figures to show the demands made by the different groups of cattle with which the experiments were conducted. Now that pasture land in the corn belt has so much greater value than used to be the case, there is more reason, according to Mr. Smith's view, for utilizing to the fullest advantage all of the fodder from corn and other so-called roughage.

Mr. Smith presented a great many other worth while ideas and interesting discussion was developed.

YOUNG PEOPLE WILL GIVE ENTERTAINMENT

Literberry Christian Church Bible School Plans Entertainment for Christmas Eve—Will Give Play and Oyster Supper.

Literberry, Dec. 20. — The young people of the Literberry Christian church Bible School are planning to observe Christmas as usual this year.

Until three years ago it had been the annual custom for the young people to present a home talent play followed by a Christmas tree and an oyster supper prepared and served by the Young Men's Bible Class. This plan was first interrupted by the world war which called fourteen of our young men to the colors. But this Christmas season they are with us again and the custom has been resumed.

It was thought best not to depend upon the scant supply of coal for heating the church and last Tuesday, twelve of the young men spent the day in the woods and prepared a plentiful supply of wood.

The entertainment to which the public is most cordially invited will begin promptly at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday evening, Dec. 24th.

The play is entitled "An Old Fashioned Mother."

M. BULAND COACHES CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

Mer High School Coach Has Championship Football Team of West Virginia—Won Honors from Morgantown Thanksgiving Day—Has Been Successful at Parkersburg for Several Years.

Copy of the Parkersburg, at Virginia, News has reached Journal containing an account of a football game played at Parkersburg Thanksgiving day in which the Parkersburg High School team defeated Marietta, Ohio, 26 to 7.

The team was coached by H. M. Buland in charge of athletics at Jacksonville high school from 1910 to 1915. During those years Buland developed some great football, basketball and track teams. His team of 1911 is still rated among local football followers. Since going to Parkersburg but four years ago, Mr. Buland has been most successful in turning out good athletic teams. Especially is this true in football. His first year at Parkersburg team defeated Marietta, Ohio, 26 to 7, after losing to that team for seven years. The Parkersburg paper carries a story of the game play by play. It also refers to the half back men of the team who are said to be two of the greatest high school backs ever developed in the east. Buland also has two fine wing men, one of them, Litterdale, being picked as an all state man. Buland had arranged a game with Allegheny high of Pittsburgh, Pa., which was played on December 6, at Parkersburg for the championship of two states. Allegheny has been awarded the championship of the prep schools of Pennsylvania and no doubt the game was a battle royal. A group likeness of the Parkersburg team is carried on the first page of the News with the information that it has twice captured state honors. The many friends of Mr. Buland here will be pleased to learn of his continued success as a coach.

ALTON SCHEDULE NOW NEAR NORMAL

Train Service Is Again Satisfactory—Mr. Charlton Writes of New Card.

As previously mentioned, Henry Frisch as president of the Chamber of Commerce, promptly took up the matter of better train service on the Alton with Mr. Charlton, General passenger agent. The most recent letter and one which calls attention to the trains being restored, received yesterday by Mr. Frisch. Mr. Charlton indicates his pleasure in announcing the better service.

Mr. Henry Frisch, President, Chamber of Commerce, Jacksonville, Illinois. Dear Mr. Frisch: Referring to recent correspondence, I am pleased to advise that we shall restore in part, commencing tomorrow, Saturday December 20, some of the passenger trains which were temporarily withdrawn account of the coal shortage.

So far as Jacksonville is concerned they will be put right back on the map again and I am pleased on your account as well as all our good friends in Jacksonville that we have been able to take care of you in that way.

In addition to the trains which you have today, viz: train 10 Jacksonville to Chicago and train 15 Jacksonville to St. Louis and Jacksonville to Kansas City, we shall put back again trains 70 and 71 between Roodhouse and Bloomington and trains 30 and 31 between Jacksonville and St. Louis. That will give you morning and evening service into and out of Jacksonville in both directions.

A little later and when our proposed new card is approved by the administration, I think you will find that we have provided other service which will greatly improve the conditions at Jacksonville.

With every good wish, I am, G. J. CHARLTON, General Passenger Agent.

SEVERAL PROPERTY SALES HELD SATURDAY

Kittner Farm Purchased By Charles H. Story at $311 Per Acre—Other Sales.

Saturday was an active day in the court house in the matter of real estate sales, and considerable acreage changed hands, in addition to some city property. The largest body of land sold was 279 acres of land belonging to the estate of the late Henry Kittner. It is located on the Vandalla road about a half mile east of Morgan lake. The property was sold by Charles H. Story as auctioneer to Allinson Thomason, at $311.50 per acre.

It was stated afterward that Mr. Thomason was buying the land for Charles H. Story. The terms of the sale required the immediate payment of 25 per cent on the purchase price. Mr. Story said last night that he had not purchased the land for speculation, that he expected to hold and operate it as it is well located and easily accessible from Jacksonville. The land was first offered in tracts, 120 acres going at $300 an acre, 80 acres at $250 and 79 acres at $200, the purchaser in each instance being W. A. Crawley.

J. Frank and Edward Kittner are executors of the estate and F. L. Gregory was the attorney who acted for them in handling the legal matters relating to the sale. The estate has been in course of settlement since 1889. The executors were most largely interested in the property as it had with their own holdings they had with passing years purchased the interest of others. Earlier in the present year about 40 acres of the estate was sold to the city of Jacksonville to be used for reservoir purposes.

Other Sales. Another sale of land was that of the John German estate land, resulting from the partition proceedings brought by Carrie Wahrenbrock vs. Edward German et al. This land was sold by Master in Chancery English and was purchased by Lee Weigand at $27,570. One hundred and twenty acres brought $190 an acre and 90 acres brought $53 an acre. Wilson & Butler were attorneys for the estate.

The master in chancery, also sold 27 acres belonging to the John Flynn estate, the purchaser being W. T. Dodsworth. The land brought $150.50 an acre. Wilson & Butler were also attorneys for this estate. Mr. English sold the Albert W. Cox home on Jordan street to Mrs. Mary March at $4,675. Three lots in Chicago belonging to the estate were purchased by G. J. Dowell at $320. Wilson & Butler served as attorneys in this estate.

Money From Sales Will Be Used to Purchase Food For Pupils of Open Air School.

Where you shopping today? If you were, then you must have gotten that "Christmas feeling." People hurrying from place to place, talking of Christmas. The clerk when he handed you your package placed a Red Cross Seal on it. The hotels and cafes entered into the Christmas spirit by using a Christmas seal on the menu.

Young girls did their bit by stopping people on the street and selling them Red Cross Seals, and even the kiddies from the Open Air School were out in their blanket suits explaining that our proceeds from the sale of Red Cross Christmas Seals was to be used to purchase food for them at the Open Air School.

Everyone is cooperating to help these Open Air School kiddies, let's make this campaign a grand success. Seals are on sale at Gilberts, Coover & Shreve (west side) Waddell's and Floreth Co.

Phi Alpha Annual Hoof Shake.

Friday evening the members of the Phi Alpha Society of Illinois College and their lady friends enjoyed the annual hoof shake of the organization. About sixty were present and a very enjoyable time was had. Music was furnished by the Victrola and Miss McCurley at the piano. Refreshments consisted of mince pie a la mode, and hot chocolate. The evening was spent in various ways. Some time was enjoyed socially, then Akers, Haynes, Thompson and H. Best spoke, after which there was a grand march led by Poague and Miss McQueston, the program closing with dancing. Cloverleaf Booster Club Met Friday.

The Cloverleaf Booster Club, composed of the employees of the Cloverleaf Life & Casualty Company, held a meeting of more than usual interest Friday evening. Each year at the Christmas season the club has contributed baskets to some needy ones and this year will carry out the idea as usual, tho on a somewhat larger scale, as evidenced by a letter from the officers of the Cloverleaf Insurance Company, part of which is as follows:

"Having noted that your club has undertaken, to some extent, during the Christmas season, the distribution of baskets to the needy of the community the officers of the Cloverleaf wish to encourage this commendable spirit. If you wish to extend this at the coming Christmas season the officers will be glad to hand your club fifty dollars to be used for this purpose and in such way as your club thru some committee, may direct."

this donation was accepted and a committee consisting of Margaret Stranberg, Ollie Riemann, and Eula Harshaw was appointed to look after same. The annual election of officers was held and the following were chosen to represent the club for 1920.

President—Louise Stranberg.
First vice president—Olive Reimann.
Second vice president—Georgia Melton.
Secretary—Katherine Sullivan.
Treasurer—Lenore Weigand.
The retiring president, Mrs. H. Schirz, commended the excellent work of the various committees during the past year and expressed the wish that the same hearty co-operation and good spirit would continue during the coming year. A social hour followed, during which time gifts were dispensed from a well lighted Christmas tree, affording much amusement.

MANY QUESTIONS BY CENSUS MEN

Government Issues Instructions—
To Take Data in Two Weeks—
Statistical Information.

Hundreds of residents in this city and the county are wondering what the 1920 census will be like and what questions the enumerators will ask them. Many weathered the census ten years ago but the present taking of data is different in that it includes many new questions especially about agriculture.

Pamphlet is issued. To familiarize every one in the county with the taking of the census that begins the day after New Year's the government has issued a pamphlet containing all desired information for the fourteenth decennial census.

The census is required every 10 years by the constitution of the United States and by act of congress. The date named for beginning the 1920 census is January 1, but the "Census Day" is January 2.

In cities of population enumeration will be completed in two weeks.

The enumeration of farms will be completed within 30 days.

The censuses of manufacturers, mines and quarries, oil and gas wells, and forestry and forest products will as a rule, be taken by special agents and by correspondence, and not by enumerators.

The census is the means by which the government ascertains the increase in the population, the statistics concerning agriculture, and the vital information concerning the resources of the nation.

For Statistical Purposes The census inquiries are defined by act of congress.

The information gathered is strictly confidential, made so by law.

Census information cannot under any circumstances be used as a basis for taxation, nor can it be used to harm any person or his property.

It has nothing whatever to do with detection, arrest, prosecution, or punishment of any person.

son for any violation of any law.

Questions Asked all Persons

1—Age of last birthday.
2—Each person 10 years of age and over will be asked whether he is able to read and write.

3—Each person will be asked his birthplace, as well as the birthplace of his father and mother.

4—If foreign born, the date of coming to the United States will be asked and if naturalized, the date of becoming a citizen; also mother tongue or native language.

5—Each head of a family will be asked whether his home is owned by him or rented. If owned, whether the home is mortgaged or free from debt.

6—Each person will be asked his occupation and whether he is employee or employer or is working on his own account.

The answers to the above questions give valuable and vital information to the government concerning the health, welfare and progress of the persons under its protection.

Questions Asked Farmers.

1—Each occupant of a farm will be asked how many years, if any, he worked on a farm for wages, how many years, if any, he was a tenant; and how many years, if any, he farmed as an owner.

2—Whether he (a) owns, or (b) rents, or (c) partly owns and partly rents his farm, or whether (d) he operates his farm for others as manager or superintendent.

3—How many acres in his farm? Number of improved acres and number of acres of woodland?

4—Total value of farm. Total value of buildings? Value of implements and machinery on farm?

5—Whether farm is mortgaged?

6—Expenses for feed, fertilizer and labor in the year 1919?

7—Several questions concerning artificial drainage of his farm. If so, the amount of mortgage?

8—Number of cows, horses, sheep, chickens and other domestic animals on the farm Jan. 1, 1920.

9—Quantity and acreage of all crops grown on the farm in 1920, including fruit and vegetables?

10—Quantity of milk and butter sold off the farm during the year 1919?

11—Acreage of timberland on farm and value of timber products.

Correct answers to the above questions are of the utmost importance. The United States department of agriculture assisted the census bureau in preparing the questions on the agriculture schedule and appeals to farmers everywhere to keep farm records for census purposes.

SUGARLESS CANDIES AND DESSERTS

Within a few days one's thoughts will be turning to Christmas candies, and there is bound to be many a sigh this year, for sugar is all but unobtainable, and when found is extremely high in price. But we do not need to confine ourselves to sugar candies or even to desserts that are made with sugar. Sirups and honey can be used as sugar substitutes, and fruits can be prepared to make excellent dainties.

Stuffed Prunes or Dates.
Soak prunes over night and steam until tender. Remove seed and stuff with a mixture of nuts, figs and candied cherries ground together. Cottage cheese and nuts may be used, or peanut butter and raisins ground together into a paste. When the prunes are stuffed, roll in powdered sugar or coconut, or dip in chocolate. Dates may be stuffed in the same way.

Candied Orange Peel.
Remove the white part from orange peeling and boil peeling until tender, changing the water several times during the process.
Boil white corn sirup until it reaches the hard ball stage. Add the orange peel cut in strips and dried, to the sirup, and continue boiling for a few minutes. Dry on oiled paper.

Peanut Brittle.
1 cup sirup, 1 teaspoon vinegar,
1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 cup peanuts. Cook sirup, vinegar, salt until they form a soft ball when dropped in water. Put peanuts and the sirup into an iron skillet and stir until it becomes a golden brown. Remove from the fire and stir in the vanilla. Pour candy into shallow buttered pan and spread in thin sheet. When cool crack in pieces.

Shortcake.
2 cups flour, 4 teaspoons baking powder, 2 teaspoons sirup, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 4 tablespoons fat, 3/4 cup milk. Mix dry ingredients, cut in shortening, add the milk to make a soft dough. Roll one inch thick and cut with a 1 large biscuit cutter. Brush with butter, place two together and bake in hot oven 30 minutes. Place fruit between and serve with cream.

Apple John.
Put stewed fruit into a buttered baking dish and cover with the above shortcake dough. Bake 20 or 30 minutes in a quick oven.
Invert on serving dish. Sprinkle with cinnamon or nutmeg and serve with cream or fruit sauce.

Fruit Sauce.
1 cup fruit juice, 2 tablespoons sirup, 1 tablespoon corn starch.
Mix sirup and corn starch and add boiling juice. Cook to right consistency and serve hot or cold.

Ginger Bread.
1 cup molasses, 2 1/4 cups flour,
1/2 cup boiling water, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 1/2 teaspoons ginger, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 4 level tablespoons fat, 1 egg. Blend molasses and water, add dry ingredients mixed and sifted together. Add the eggs well beaten and the melted fat.
Beat well, place in buttered pans or muffin tins and bake in a moderate oven 25 minutes. More ginger bread is ruined by baking in too hot an oven than in any other way. The oven must be moderate in temperature. A variation may be made by using cinnamon and other spices in place of ginger. Dried fruit may be added. The cake may be served with boiled custard, cream or fruit sauce.

Rice and Pineapple Custard.
2 cups steamed rice, 3 eggs, 1/4 cup milk, 1/2 cup sirup, 1/2 cup grated pineapple. Add well beaten egg yolk, sirup, milk and fruit to the rice. Fold in stiffly beaten whites and bake 30 minutes in a well buttered baking dish. Rolled oats or other cereal may be used instead of rice. Raisins, figs, dates or apples may be used instead of the pineapple.

Sunset Pudding.
2 cups milk, 6 tablespoons sirup, 7 tablespoons corn starch,
1 egg, 3 teaspoons cocoa, vanilla.
Heat the milk and sirup and corn starch, let cook until stiff over boiling water. Divide into three equal parts. Color one part with cocoa, add egg yolk to the second part and fold the stiffly beaten whites into the third part. Put into a mold by alternate spoonfuls and when set serve with plain or whipped cream. Any fruit juice may be used instead of part of the milk. Coconut might be added to one part and nuts to another part.

Whipped Cream Substitute
Ripe banana beaten into egg white with a little sugar or sirup until the desired consistency will form a good substitute for whipped cream. Lemon juice makes a good addition.

Pineapple Fluff.
1 cup chopped pineapple (no juice), 1/4 pound marshmallows, 1 cup whipped cream, 1/2 cup chopped nuts, put the pineapple and marshmallows in small pieces with scissors. Let stand until ready to serve. Just before serving add whipped cream and nuts. Instead of the pineapples, cherries, canned apricots, white grapes or any fruit without juice, may be used.

How to Substitute.
Wherever sirup, honey or molasses is used as substitute for sugar in a recipe which calls for sugar, reduce the milk or other liquid 1/4. In batters where honey is used 1/4 teaspoon soda should be added, and where molasses is used 1/2 teaspoon soda. The soda should be used in addition to any other leavening agent mentioned in the recipe but care should be used not to use too much soda.

MEASURES THE GAS YOU USE

New Instrument for Motor Cars Fits on Dash Same as Speedometer.

From Popular Mechanics.

A dash instrument which records information regarding the gasoline consumption of a motor car is being manufactured in a Southern state. In appearance, the device resembles an odometer, but, instead of registering mileage, it indicates the amount of fuel used during a season, or on a trip, and the quantity in the tank, besides giving warning if the vacuum system is not functioning properly.

The latter is accomplished by colored signals which appear in an aperture in the face of the meter. Provision is made for resetting the contrivance at the end of a trip or at the close of a season.
Metal tubing connects this extremely useful instrument with the vacuum tank, through which it is operated.

UNDERWEAR REMINDS MORMON OF VOWS

Woman Explains Significance of Mormon Garment—Strange Underwear Always Worn by Mormons, is a Constant Threat Against Betrayal of Church Secrets.

Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph: Mrs. Lulu Loveland Shepard recently gave her explanation of the nature and significance of the underwear said to be worn by all Mormons.

The matter came up for discussion at a session of the World Christian Citizenship Conference at Syria Mosque. James E. Talmage, a Mormon apostle, who had asked the privilege of speaking at the conference, was subjected to a cross-examination by the delegates. In the course of the questioning he was asked concerning the significance of the alleged Mormon underwear. He refused to reply to the question and Mrs. Shepard, who spoke on "The Mormon Menace," explained what she says is the reason for his silence.

Mrs. Shepard says the garment is given Mormons who have taken the oath in the Mormon temple. She quotes the oath from senate report 4253, part 1, Fifty-ninth Congress. It is the report of the United States Senate committee on privileges and elections and was signed, she says, by four Democrats and four Republicans. The oath as Mrs. Shepard gives it follows: "You and each of you do covenant and promise that you will pray and never cease to pray Almighty God to avenge the blood of the prophets upon this nation and that you will teach the same to your children and your children's children unto the third and fourth generation."

Put On in the Temple
In describing the garment, Mrs. Shepard said: "When the garment is first put on in the temple the tie at the neck (there are no buttons on it, but usually three ties) is of red, signifying blood atonement. Over the right breast is a square and over the left is a compass, these signifying that if the Mormon breaks the oath or reveals the secrets he will be quartered."

"Across the abdomen is a slit signifying that the wearer will have his bowels removed and that they will be dragged on the ground if he reveals the oaths or secrets. The bestowing of the square and compass is accompanied by the Malchizedek grip and that of the slit by the Aaronic grip. Then across the knees is a curved line signifying that the wearer's legs shall be cut off at the knees for violation of the oath. This is accompanied by the minor Aaronic grip."

Worn by Mormon Soldiers
"These garments are never removed from the body. I have had a number of Mormon girls in my home as servants and when they the or change their garments, they never entirely remove the soiled garment until the clean one is partially on. During the war a committee from the Mormon church waited upon President Wilson and Secretaries Baker and Daniels and requested that the Mormon soldiers and sailors be permitted to wear this garment instead of the regulation underwear issued by the government. The request was granted. "The garments are white and the symbols are usually of white tape. They can be purchased at the Mormon supply house, but the symbols are usually sewed on by the Mormon women in their homes. In the west the Mormons have symbols in quite large dimensions and they can be plainly seen as they are hanging on the clotheslines, but when Mormon elders go away from home the size of the symbols is very much reduced. "The men practically never unloose the garment about the neck, but when the girls go to dances they wear low cut gowns as other girls and tuck the church garment down inside their dresses, but never entirely remove it."

ONE YANK WAS A TRAITOR

Led Russians to Attack Doughboys in Their Bivouac—Seventy-Two Americans Fought With Rare Courage and Put a Superior Force to Rout, But Lost 28 Dead, 25 Wounded.

From the Tulsa World. San Francisco.—The handful of Americans who fought in a battle at Romanofka, Siberia, June 26, 1919, made a record second to none for bravery and heroism. The men have just arrived here. The story of their battle was disclosed here for the first time by Lieut. Lawrence D. Butler of the 31st infantry. With the lower half of his jaw shot away a wound received in the engagement, Butler recited the tale haltingly.

An American soldier deserted and guided a numerically superior force of Russians to a poorly protected camp, where the Americans were bivouacked. They were sleeping when the onslaught opened. The Russians were massed on the crest of a heavily timbered hill commanding the entire camp, and poured a deadly rifle and machine gun fire into the thin khaki ranks. There were seventy-two doughboys when the fight started. When it ended twenty-eight were dead and twenty-five others severely wounded. Five of the company had been recommended for the Distinguished Service Cross.

The Russians had posed as simple country folk, friendly to the Americans. They outnumbered their benefactors two to one. But when they turned to attack they fired even into their own homes, where some of the Americans had fled for protection against the hail of steel pellets that rained into the camp. Victory finally crowned the heroic struggle of the doughboys.

Yanks Killed While Asleep
"Most of the boys who were killed never had a chance to leave their beds," the officer said. "They were shot while asleep. The others came scrambling out, and fought in their underclothing. I ordered them on to advance in skirmish order. They moved as though on the drill ground. A corporal, already wounded in the foot, led them. He walked and the men followed."

"We reached a low lying fence, and I organized my defense with two men on each flank, three to protect the rear, and sixteen facing the enemy. This is the manner in which the men met the Russians, armed with German and Russian rifles."

"My orderly was behind me, carrying my rifle. My pistol was empty and I turned to him, asking for the rifle. As he handed it to me his head was blown off. I was wounded in the leg by an American bullet, fired by a Russian."

Shot Teeth Out of His Mouth
"A Russian ran to our ammunition tent. I put my head out of a window where I had gone to pick up a sharpshooter and received a bullet in the jaw. My teeth flew over the place like so many pellets. Before long, though, we had them on the run."

When the fight was all over the victors started to bury the enemy dead. Lying face down, shot three times in the back, they found the body of the former "buddie" who had betrayed them. He, too, was buried, but no taps bade him rest in peace.

TOO MUCH PUBLICITY.

From Birmingham Age-Herald. "I like the old-fashioned courtship best."

"How was that?"
"Well, the young man and his best girl sat on a horsehair sofa in a dimly lighted parlor and held hands, or paddled up and down a river in a canoe, or strolled thru the wildwood, or took a spin behind old Dobbin."

"And now?"
"There's too much publicity in the motor courtship. Every dealer in gasoline and auto supplies within a radius of fifty miles knows what's going on."

UTILITIES BODY MEDIUM OF JUSTICE

(Hugh S. Weston)

War-time experiences of the public utilities commission were equivocal to being caught in "no-man's land" with a barrage being laid down from both opposing trenches, Hugh S. Weston, examiner for the state regulatory body, told members of the Chamber of Commerce in telling of the commission's efforts to impartially judge controversies. On the one hand was some portions of the general public, willing to concede greatly increased costs for everything from food, clothing and every other product up to labor, but not without reasonable advances in utilities rates, while on the other was the companies, unable to make necessary extensions, and compelled to furnish service regardless of the costs. Both sides, naturally, being prejudiced as to the merits of their respective cases, it was the utilities commission's task to assume the unpopular job as arbitrator. There was no complaint from the public up to 1918, because up to that time the commission was constantly reducing rates, and it was popular, Mr. Weston said. "Then came the serious problems of the war that are still with us. Many utilities faced curtailment of service unless rates were readjusted upwards to meet the greatly increased costs. Now regulation—fair regulation—can only have one meaning and that is justice to the public and the companies alike. The commission has attempted to courageously meet the issue, basing its decisions on cold and indisputable facts. In all controversies, if there has been a tendency towards leaning backwards, it has been in the customers' favor.

"It is interesting to know that most persons appear to care more for good service than for the money they pay for it. The public, generally, knows that its interests are amply safeguarded and that the utility companies can do practically nothing without approval of the commission. A utility company, for instance, cannot change rates until a full hearing has been held. Conditions of service are subject to constant supervision and even no securities can be issued without approval. With respect to rates it should be remembered that the constant reductions from 1914 to 1918 resulted in $5,825,000 being saved to the people of the state. But this strain could not be endured if the companies were to continue to operate and if they were to be permitted to develop to meet the needs of the state. If they were unduly repressed they would be driven out of business and the people would go back to candles for lighting, the old wood stove for heating and the horse for transportation.

"Just regulation has been proven by our war experience, as the safeguard of all rights concerned. Big problems are being solved and are yet to be solved and it takes courage to do the thing that is right, especially if it is the unpopular side from the public standpoint. If the commission were not big enough to take such a position, its usefulness would be ended and its right to exist as a regulatory body would be open to question.

Mr. Weston spoke on the various phases of the street car question and quoted former President William Howard Taft, who was one of the joint chairmen of the National War Labor Board, as saying that the 5-cent fare in 1915 is but equal to the 7-cent fare in 1919. He went into the history of the commission, stating that the utilities law was the product of Dean Kinly and Prof. Fairlie of the University of Illinois, and that since its organization on July 1, 1914, has disposed of 8,000 cases. It now has 114 persons on its payroll, including a force of utility experts who make a complete study of all of the intricate problems involving service that are presented.

Al! That Heavy Feeling Gone Since He Began To Take NATSKI For It

Sherman Weatherholt often woke up with a heavy feeling in his back. He had quit work for several days at a time. But he tells a different story now, and here it is:

"About three months ago, Natski Blood Purifier was recommended to me and I bought a bottle and took it and felt so much better that I bought and took two more bottles, and since that time I have felt no more rheumatic pains, have had no more catches in the back nor have had the heavy feeling on my back of mornings. I believe Natski Blood Purifier has brought about these results.

Gains Eighteen Pounds Taking Tanlac—Hasn't Felt So Well Since She Was A Child.

"I haven't felt so perfectly well in every way since I was a girl, and I have gained eighteen pounds in weight since I commenced taking Tanlac," said Mrs. W. I. Cahert, who lives at 206 Edmund Street, Peoria, Ill., the other day. "It certainly seems remarkable to me," she continued, "that a few bottles of Tanlac could make such a wonderful change in my condition after everything else I had tried for nine long years had failed to help me at all. I suffered from a pain across the small of my back nearly all the time, and this trouble finally got so bad that I couldn't walk up a short flight of steps without stopping to rest. If I tried to do a little work around the house I would be laid up in bed for days from it, and my back would hurt me so I could hardly turn over in bed. My stomach was in bad condition, too, and everything I ate disagreed with me. I would be nauseated after eating anything, and would often have severe cramping pains in the pit of my stomach. I was so nervous I couldn't sleep well and my nights would have to get up and sit in a chair for hours at a time, and nearly every morning I would get up with raging headache. These troubles just kept getting worse all the time until I finally got to where I was hardly able to be up very long at a time, and had to spend weeks in bed.

"One day one of my neighbors came in and told me what great things Tanlac had done for her, and advised me to give it a trial, so I got my husband to get me a bottle and I commenced taking it. I can truthfully say that I felt better in just a few days after I began taking this wonderful medicine, and from that time on I improved every day. Now I am as well and strong as I ever was in my life, and can do all my housework and family washing without the least trouble. Those awful headaches have left me entirely, and my nerves are in such perfect condition that I sleep like a child every night. I never had a better appetite, can eat three hearty meals every day without the least bit of trouble afterwards. I am also glad to say that the pain has left my back altogether, and I can run up and down stairs now as well as I ever could. In fact, I just couldn't ask for better health than I am now enjoying, and I'll tell the world that Tanlac is solely responsible for it all."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover & Shreve; in Mercedosa by Mr. R. B. Field; in Murrayville by M. E. Gilbert; in Waverly by Wyle Drug Co.; in Woodstock by The Hoy Pharmacy; in Chapin by John Onken & Bros., and in Alexander by Frank J. Kaiser.—Adv.

From the New York Times.

"Obligatory sport" may seem a contradiction in terms. Yet it is the current phrase for a thing that awaits the incoming freshmen at Harvard. Studies are still mainly clerical; the mind, or whatever occupies the freshman's dome, is free. But no corpulence in his body which should be red will escape the athletic director's determination to paint it crimson. Under the new plan, every undergraduate will be required to take at least three hours a week of fitting exercise, and no effort will be spared to make the exercise sport. In the open season the open sports will, of course, prevail. When winter comes, in addition to gymnasium work there will be handball, fives, squash. These are game games, and if properly played afford sport that will keep the most athletic in the pink of condition. It may be surmised, however, that many grinds, and not a few others, will find their compulsory practice irksome, and will at times be lost in wonder that only the activities hidden within their crania are free.

Murphy says: "When I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, I could hardly be on my feet. While no able to work I tried to keep up. I was advised to use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Golden Medical Discovery and took both. I began to get better when the treatment was finished. I was much stronger and better able to work."

The remedies were fine; easy to take and fully satisfactory. Mrs. Wm. Blackburn, 627 N. 14th St.

Elgin, Ill.: "When I reached middle life I was miserable with heat flashes, dizzy spells, bearing-down pains, nervousness, sick-headaches and sleeplessness. I remembered that when my mother was going through the same period of life she depended upon Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and the Pleasant Pellets. She came through the change so we took these two remedies and in a few days I was much better. All of the annoying and distressing conditions I had suffered with disappeared, and came through the change of life just as strong and well as my mother had years ago. I can highly recommend the good medicines to all women at the critical period."—Mrs. ANNIE VANDERBURG, 253 Franklin St.

LIVES WITH BROKEN NECK

Johnny Allen, War Hero, Kept Going After Usually Fatal Injury—Major Roosevelt's Runner Was Discharged With Small Disability Allowance—Now in Hospital Bed While Friends Urge His Case.

Johnny Allen of Atchison, Kas., was a brakeman on the Missouri Pacific when the war started. It wasn't long before he got overseas with the 26th Infantry of the famous 1st division. Maj. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., in whose battalion he was, attached Johnny to his headquarters as a runner. For Johnny was quick of wit and quick of foot.

Was Wounded at Soissons. At Soissons, Johnny was "leaving" between the 28th and the 26th infantry regiments. He was carrying an important message to his commanding officer, accompanied by two other runners. Along came a German shell. Johnny's friends went "out." So did he for a while, but he awoke to remember he had a message telling about a gap between the two attacking regiments, which must be delivered. So, with neck broken by three shell fragments in his spinal column, Johnny staggered back and delivered his message.

Scotch woman surgeon who had joined the French army operated on Johnny, and it is to her he owes his life, he says. A. W. O. L. With a Broken Neck. Johnny stood the voyage home well. He desired a furlough as soon as he landed. And when he couldn't obtain it, this homesick Yank with a broken neck went A. W. O. L. back to Kansas to see his mother, who is dependent on him.

When he reported back to Walter Reed hospital in Washington, attendants were so astounded at the phenomenon of a man with a broken neck being absent without leave, they forgot to prefer charges. Johnny was transferred to Fort Riley. An X-ray was taken and it was decided there wasn't a fracture in his neck after all. So he was sent to Camp Funston and discharged June 30.

And the thing happened to Johnny that has happened to other warriors, broken in their country's service. He was marked only 3 per cent disabled and awarded no compensation money.

Johnny couldn't brake any more, so he tried a job in a cigar factory. It was too much for him. Friends Took Up His Case. When his friends found Johnny's real condition, they went after the powers that had thrown the veteran out with a 3 per cent disability classification. Behind Johnny, besides Lieutenant Colonel Roosevelt, were Gov. Henry J. Allen, several senators, the forces of the Red Cross and others. A promise of vocational training, which had been refused Johnny's time, was made. It was determined that he should receive 100 per cent compensation for his injuries, probably amounting to $100 a month.

Johnny is being cared for at St. Joseph hospital now. Swathed to the ears in a plaster cast, Johnny chats happily with visitors, telling them of the "hard luck of the guy in the next bunk," who suffered the loss of a foot in an accident.

OUR CONSTANT AIM. TO FLY TO SOUTH POLE

British Explorers Will Leave For Antarctic in June—Airplane is Expected to Make in a Few Hours a Trip That Would Require Months by Sledge.

From the Manitoba Free Press. John L. Cope, who accompanied the Imperial Trans-Antarctic expedition to the Ross Sea in 1914-17, has outlined his plans for the new British venture to the South Pole, which he is to lead next June and his views on the work which it is hoped to accomplish in a five years' stay. As already announced, the equipment of the British Imperial Antarctic expedition will include an airplane and by means of wireless the explorers hope to be able to keep in touch with civilization throughout their adventurous journey.

The general objects of the explorers are: To carry on the work already done by other explorers; to obtain further information of a scientific and economic value. Will Talk With World by Radio. Generally to extend our knowledge of the Antarctic continent, and thus to endeavor to complete the map.

"We propose to leave England next June," said Mr. Cope, "and sail for Wellington (New Zealand); thence we proceed to Macquarie Island, where a geological survey is to be made. Then we proceed to Scott Island, and establish wireless and meteorological stations; and thence we go to New Harbor, where headquarters will be fixed.

"Thus, with our boat and airplane carrying wireless equipment, and these stations established, we shall always be in wireless touch with civilization wherever we go."

Expect to Save Months. By using the airplane, it is hoped in a flight of twenty to twenty-five hours to avoid a tortuous journey lasting many months.

"The distance of the pole from the base from which the airplane will start," said Mr. Cope, "is about 750 miles. We shall, of course, be compelled to take a sledge and extra provisions, to enable us to get back in the event of the airplane breaking down; and with the weight of all these things it will be necessary to cut down our fuel to the minimum or taking off will be very difficult and lifting the plane for crossing the mountain ranges impossible. We propose to set off with as much petrol as we can, and then half-way on the outward journey, just before we get to a range of mountains that we have to cross to dump half of it, and pick it up again coming back."

BEST CURE FOR HELL RAISING From the Houston Post.

The Lord made Adam and Eve full grown and put them in a beautiful place where they didn't need to work, and at the very outset they began to raise hell. Then He made them go to work. If you feel like you are about to break loose, go to work.

DISOBEYED ORDERS AND WON

Captain Miller Got Congressional Medal for Action at Gettysburg

From the New York Mail. Capt. William E. Miller, a Civil War veteran who died in Carlisle, Pa., a few days ago, enjoyed the unique distinction of having received the congressional medal of honor for an act of disobedience to orders in the face of the enemy.

Captain Miller was in command of a small squadron of the 3rd Pennsylvania cavalry at the battle of Gettysburg. Being ordered to hold a certain position at all hazards, the third day of the battle, he took the risk of abandoning that post and hurling his handful of cavalymen upon the flank of Wade Hampton's mounted division of eight thousand men while it was galloping forward to attack Custer's four thousand horse. That created a diversion upon which Hampton had not counted, and Miller's act of disobedience was regarded, so far as the cavalry was concerned, as the turning point of the battle in favor of the Union forces.

Old Santa Says Now Bring in The Children Toyland Complete

The Christmas Spirit pervades our big store. The children are reveling in the delights of our Toyland while the grownups are enthusiastic over the more practical things we are showing in gratifying completeness.

The Christmas Spirit is a mysterious thing; the most powerful, most kindly influence in the world. Unseen, unheralded, it slips into the palaces of kings, softly it glides into the peasant's hut. It lingers in a billion hearts; it inhabits a thousand lands. And, ah, how the children love it! Were it not, what heart-burnings would there be; what a pitiful void in the dream world of prattling childland! It is the incarnation of their pretty imaginings; it is the materialization of their dream castles.

Will There be Music in the Home Christmas

is The One Phonograph that actually Re-creates--that gives you the world's best music in a manner that has challenged thousands to say which was the original and which was the creation.

Your Christmas Gift to those you love should be one that adds to their joy of living. Life itself is the greatest gift there is. To get the most out of it is a duty as well as a pleasure, for we have but one life to live. Music, which gets into our inmost being and moulds our character, chases out discord with melody and despondency with cheer. It makes no difference whose Christmas gift you are considering—husband or wife—parents, whose hair has silvered, or children with golden locks. Bring more music into their lives and your present to them will be happier days.

THINGS HUSBANDS NEVER DO
From the London Mail.
"You have done something this morning that you have never done before," said a wife to her husband yesterday. "Twenty tries and you won't guess what it is." The husband thought of his failings and ventured: "Rinsed the bath after I used it?" "No," replied his wife, "you will never do that." "Shut my tie and collar drawer?" "No." "Said good morning?" "No." "Smiled at breakfast time?" "No." "Passed the toast to you?" "No." "I give it up," said the husband. "You folded your pajamas." Here are other things that, according to wives, husbands never do: They never leave their slippers twice in the same corner. Never hang a towel tidily. Never put a coal on the fire until it is nearly out. Never use an ash tray when there is an empty fireplace. Never use a hat peg when there is a chair in the hall. Never ask their wives how they spent the day.

"On what ground?" "I'll give you an example of public spirit. Last night at a fire some firemen turned a hose on me. Did I get mad Did I threaten to sue the city or break somebody's head? I did not, sir. I shook myself and said: 'Don't apologize, boys. I know you didn't mean it. Resume your battle with the flames and think no more about it!'"

ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES

Owing to irregularity of train service, school was closed on Wednesday instead of Thursday. This made it possible for faculty and students to leave on Thursday as planned.

Miss Rose Martinolles and Miss Henriette Destouesse are spending the holiday season at the college. December 31, 1919 will witness the wedding of two former I. W. C. girls. Miss Freda Fenton will marry a Mr. Harness at Mt. Vernon, Missouri, and Miss Geraldine Desmard will marry Mr. Porter Corrington at Edwardsville.

Another friend has sent a gift of $25 to be used in the Mothershead Memorial addition to the College library. A gift of books for this same Memorial was received about ten days ago. Miss Grace Hasenstab has presented a valuable book on Education to this department of the library. This is a good way to remember the college at Christmas time.

Miss Mary Louise Powell, formerly of Jacksonville, and a graduate of the class of 1915, has been appointed to a responsible position with the Bush Terminal Company of New York City. Miss Powell has been successful in the work in that city and this recognition is especially pleasing to her friends in Jacksonville.

President Harker returned on Tuesday from an important meeting of the Board of Education held in New York City. At this meeting endorsement was given to the campaign for additional endowment. Recognition of the needs of the college was evidenced by a gift of $2,000 to the current expense budget.

A number of new pupils are expected to enter after the Christmas holidays. It is planned to continue in the work of the swimming classes thru January to make up time lost in December, due to the fuel shortage.

President Harker will leave Monday for an important meeting of the Commission on Finance. This meeting will be held in Chicago on December 22 and 23.

The college is receiving plenty of coal now, and will be able to open all departments on January 6.

Miss Wackerle and Mrs. Metcalf entertained the open meeting of the Tuesday club on Tuesday, December 16.

The annual custom of carol singing was carried out this year. Many a shut-in was brightened by the visit of the singers. Miss Gladys Goodale, of the Senior class, was in charge.

From County Agent's Office

Analyzing Seed—Albert C. Wilson, Chief Seed Analyst, of the State Department of Agriculture, has informed this office that many farmers throughout the state do not seem to understand fully the instructions regarding sending in samples of seed for analysis. He asks the Farm Advisers to do all they can to have farmers understand that not less than 2 ounces of each seed to be analyzed should be sent to this office. He further asks for a list of all the individuals and firms handling seed in Morgan County. He wishes to be sure that every one of these have received a copy of the seed law.

Soil Maps Here—The biggest project, for which the Morgan County Farm Bureau is responsible, is the soil survey. The authorities at the College of Agriculture directing this work, do not make surveys until a county has a Farm Bureau and has employed a Farm Adviser. The county was very fortunate in getting the survey started immediately after the organization of the Farm Bureau. The complete maps of this survey were received at the Farm Bureau office on Friday and it is now possible for any farmer in the county to find out the type of soil that the soil survey men found on their farm. At present the maps are the property of the College of Agriculture and are for the use of the Farm Adviser in consulting with farmers. Later they will be published with explanatory notes so any farmer may get a copy free. Twenty three well defined soil types have been found in Morgan County.

Short Course—The program of the Short Course at the College of Agriculture otherwise known as the "Corn Growers and Stock Men's Convention," has been received at this office. The program this year is particularly attractive. We should be very glad to distribute the copies we have so long as they last.

A men's store for women

Every year we have the same old story about the wife who bought her husband a many colored tie for a present and then expected him to wear it and have a Merry Christmas. Evidently that woman didn't live in this community. It's been our experience that it's the women who make the best selections. That's one of the reasons we've turned this men's store into a store for women this Christmas.

You can't make a mistake in your selection here as we haven't an article in the house that wouldn't make a man's Christmas merry.

Dull Season Suit Specials

This always is the dull season for tailors—it is the "in between" broken by Christmas holidays, visiting, etc.

We find in checking up from our fall business that we have a number of odd pieces of woollens, odd lengths. In some there is just enough for a pair of trousers, in others a suit for a small man, or possibly enough for an overcoat.

The same is true of materials used in ladies' suits.

Come in and let us show you these, and if there is enough material, you will find a big bargain.

Must Answer Questions.
The men and women appointed to serve as enumerators of the Fourteenth Decennial Census are charged by law with the collection of all facts necessary to fill out properly the printed census schedules which each enumerator will carry when making the house-to-house canvass of the territory assigned to him.

Each enumerator must visit personally each house in his district and make his inquiries of the head or some other member of the family who is competent to answer the census questions.

The Act of Congress providing for the Census gives each enumerator the right to enter every dwelling in his district for the purpose of obtaining the information required. Enumerators will carry with them at all times their identification cards and also their written commissions from the Government which they will show whenever requested to do so.

They are instructed to be always courteous and considerate, but in those rare instances where information necessary to fill out the questions is denied them, they are empowered by law to insist on correct answers. There are legal penalties for refusing to answer the census questions or willfully giving answers that are false.

Each enumerator is prohibited by law from publishing or communicating any information obtained through the census regarding any individual or his affairs. This obligation to secrecy likewise applies to all persons connected with the Census. After the schedules are filled out they are sealed up and sent to Washington where the information is tabulated by means of machinery, names being discarded entirely. No person, therefore, need fear that his personal affairs will be disclosed or that the information given will be used to harm him in any way.

It is expected that the work of enumerating urban districts will be completed in two weeks and of rural districts in one month, except where severe weather makes it necessary to postpone activities.

LETTER FROM JOHN MINTER
John Minter writes the Journal from the far west, dating his letter at Springfield, Colorado, Dec. 16th.

Editor Journal:—
This is the eve of the day on which the world was to come to an end; when some predict the mercury will fall seventy degrees below zero and I am sorry to say some people believe it. I am told that many persons in Pueblo and Denver are wild to settle accounts with merchants and neighbors before they go into eternity, but I am not surprised at anything out here; any kind of a story goes. There are here all kinds of persons and doctrines, politics, religion and all else and all kinds of agents but the land agents outnumber the others, but they are good fellows and doing a land office business.

The farmers in Baca county have had good crops of all kinds of grain the last two years and all kinds of live stock is doing well. The farmers have much money and a convincing agent finds them easy customers. My great surprise was the condition of this place and its improvement. Parts of the country that were regarded undesirable are now settled clear to the cedar hills. Men and women are hauling wheat 50 to 60 miles in trucks. Wheat made 17 to 30 bushels to the acre and corn 40 to 50 bushels to the acre and on land selling for $5.00 to $10.00 an acre.

Springfield is 50 miles from a railroad and within three years has tripled in population and business houses have doubled in number. It has built a Methodist and Baptist church, flour mills, broom factory. The flour mill has 100 barrels a day capacity and will save hauling wheat a long way and flour back. The west end of the county has a farmer on every half section of land and all are doing well. The county officials are a fine set of people. In my two weeks stay here I have heard less swearing than at home in a day while all are friendly and kindly disposed. The weather has been colder than usual the past two weeks.

I am sorry to say I fail to get my Journal regularly for it is like a letter from home. I see the post met in Comrade Goheen's office on account of shortage of fuel. Keep it going. I'll be back sometime to help along.

Best wishes to all the boys and the Journal.

John Minter.

Lady Randolph Churchill

England's greatest authority on Period Furniture writes about Edison Cabinets

AN appreciation of exquisite furniture is part of the culture of the Old World. Lady Randolph Churchill is one of the most distinguished representatives of this culture. Her home is said to be the best furnished house in England. What she has to say about Edison Cabinets is therefore unquestioned authority.

(Her letter)

"What an extraordinary man Mr. Edison is. He perfects his phonograph to a point where its realism is astounding. Then he determines to make each Edison Phonograph, even the least costly, an attractive piece of furniture. Instead of the usual dentist-like looking cabinet, his designers have succeeded in putting the character and feeling of the best periods into his phonograph cases. These graceful and artistic productions will be hailed with delight by all who can afford them, and will cause Mr. Edison's new Phonograph to be received in many houses where less worthy machines have not been welcomed heretofore."

Come into our store. Examine these Edison Cabinets which have so enthused Lady Churchill. There are many different designs, presenting one of the most interesting furniture exhibits ever assembled here.

(Post Nasal Growth)

We Love the Children, Hence This Bulletin

Every child has a right to be well given the race of life with good health. under the greatest handicap. Who up with the child of good health?

Amongst the factors destroying the chances of the child comes ADENOIDS (Post Nasal Growth). Three out of every five children have ADENOIDS to some degree. Between six and twelve years they are the most destructive. All pharyngeal tonsils are of this class—but when these growths become pathogenic—they produce such evidences as—dirty noses, snoring, mouth breathing and vocal defects, aural defects, night terrors, night cries and alarming "fits", coughs also common.

In adults—asthmatic attacks, plus intranasal troubles.

Children in such condition are subject to repeated attacks of laryngitis, bronchitis and pulmonary diseases. They suffer with gastro-intestinal catarrh.

born. Every child has a right to begin life in good health. The child in poor health begins life could expect such a child to measure

Systemic evidences are seen in retarded growth, general lassitude, mental sluggishness (inability to concentrate the attention—thereby causing teachers much concern), disinclination to take part in games, sports, or study, in short—backward intellect, aprosexia.

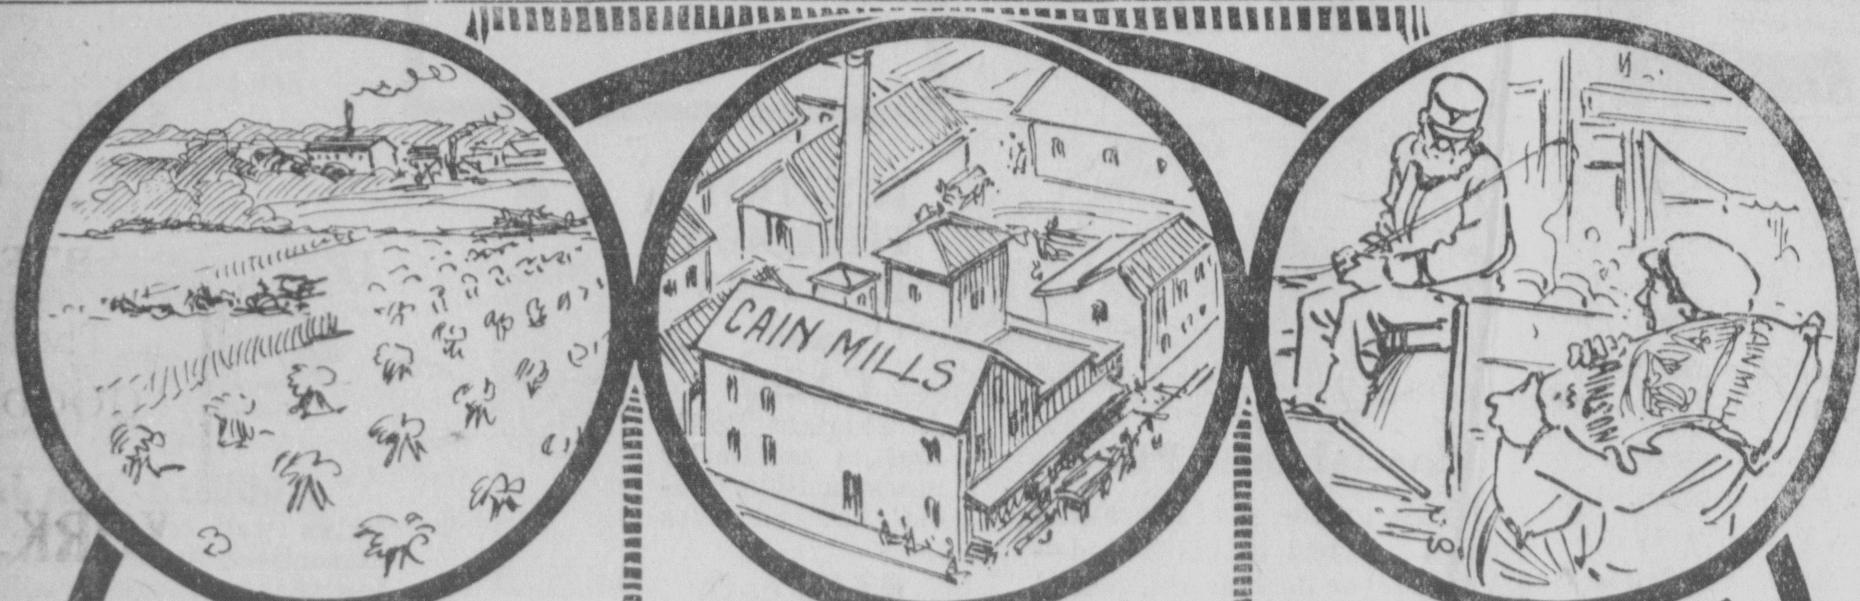

Such children grow tired of school, many before entering the fifth or sixth grades. Four out of ten will go to high school. One out of ten will graduate.

TREATMENT—Have you children examined and if adenoids are found—have them removed.

Here is wishing every child the Merriest Christmas and the Happiest New Year and the best of Health.

Watch for Bulletin Number Seven.

Willis Herring, Retail Manager

Good health is absolutely necessary to success in life. With it the possibilities and opportunities are limitless. The reason why more men and women do not make greater success and progress is because they waste so much of their nerve energy. This waste drains the system of the smashing, success-driving power and leaves it weak, listless, tired, out-of-sorts, ambitionless and subject to many ills. The condition is caused more often by energy dissipated by faulty nerve action than by work.

Success Through Conserving Nerve Force

Every man and woman can conserve their full mental and physical powers through Chiropactic. By scientific adjustment of the spinal column, the Chiropactor removes the cause of faulty nerve action and brings about a normal distribution of energy. Nature then revitalizes and regenerates the weakened and diseased system and restores the vital energy that almost invariably results in greater material benefit.

CHIROPRACTIC

THE BETTER WAY TO HEALTH

is drugless. As a means of helping Nature to restore Health and vigor it is without equal, and the results it has accomplished have been little short of miraculous. If you are sick, Chiropactic (KI-RO-PRAK-TIC) will help you to health. If you are well it will help you feel better. Just investigate.

CORN MARKET

CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—Weakness that characterized the corn market today was due principally to liberal receipts here. The close was heavy, 1c to 2½c net lower with January $1.36½ to $1.37¼ and May $1.35½.

Oats finished at declines of ½c to 2½c, and provisions unchanged 15c down.

A short early advance of corn was the result of sharp upturns in British exchange and owing to a statement which the secretary of the treasury had made in regard to credits for Europe. Buying, however, lacked force and favorable weather for railroad operation was looked for, and it was indicated that the visible supply total would show a fair increase on Monday, January delivery was the most depressed of any.

Oats went lower with corn. Both domestic and seaboard demand was slow.

Provisions were weakened by the breaks in the value of grain. Strength in the hog market and in sterling was more than counterbalanced.

MODERATE COVERING OF SHORT CONTRACTS

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Brighter prospects for railroad legislation and another substantial rise in British exchange caused moderate covering of short contracts in the course of today's brief session.

The further recovery of international remittances was based upon the recommendation of the secretary of the treasury to congress urging that credits be advanced to the more needy European countries.

Trading in bonds was relatively more active than the turnover in stocks. Liberty and foreign war issues were steady. Totals sales (par value) $12,300,000. Country-wide bank clearings again broke all previous records for this

MAVERICKS

A news despatch tells us that all the Kentucky whiskey is being shipped to Cuba. And one can't walk to Cuba.

A millionaire tried to suicide by shooting the other day. We can't understand why a man with that much money wants to leave here. However, we think it would be much more pleasant if a man wanted to leave before his time to go to England or France and sink himself to death.

A man with Hiram for a front name might be elected president, but we doubt it.

While newspaper publishers are being urged to reduce the size of their papers, there is enough paper wasted sending out worthless circulars and other printed matter from Washington to supply hundreds of small town newspapers with sufficient paper to get out their issues for the next year. It would seem that the best way to get newspapers to conserve is for the government to set an example in conservation itself.

We approve Bill Camp's suggestion last week as to the Dempsey-Carpenter fight. We would like for Bill to have some part in the affair but the only thing we can think of that he could be used for is as part of the padding for the floor of the ring.

The St. Louis National League club will train in Texas next spring. We know the reason why the money necessary for the trip should be spent as the club could not lose many more games if it trained at its own park.

Attorney General Brandage says that under the search and seizure act a man can't carry a flask in his hip pocket. Well, why not carry it in the inside coat pocket.

John Woloshevich of Springfield is going to ask the court to re-christen him Wallace. Mr. Woloshevich says he wastes lots of time explaining that he is not a Bolshevik. If John is a coal miner we hope he takes the step contemplated, his time is too valuable now to waste it in trying to teach people to pronounce his name.

A barrel of whiskey would be an acceptable Christmas gift.

But we are not expecting one.

MR. HEIMLICH MAKES LONG TRIP

D. T. Heimlich has returned home after making a long journey to various places.

At Marshall, Mo., he judged the poultry at the state exhibition. At Plainview, Texas, he had the greatest time yet. The place is not very large but there were 1,916 birds on exhibition with $3,600 in cash and premiums.

At Woodward, Okla., he judged at a similar exhibition but one which attracted a lot of good fowls.

He will stay at home now for a while but the poultry people will not give him a very long rest.
